Introduction

Autism is a lot more recognized now, but this is what it really feels like.

Chapter 1

What if you felt like?

Everybody was against you, when they weren't?

Nobody wanted to be your friend?

That you were useless?

You couldn't speak to anyone?

Like you couldn't trust people?

This is what it feels like to have autism.

What if you?

Couldn't interpret people's emotions?

Cried for no known reason?

Couldn't feel empathy for anyone?

Couldn't control yourself?

Had pretend friends or a pretend life?

Felt like curling into a ball in the corner?

But remember?

You know all the weird and wonderful facts but don't know much about 'important' facts, like fractions. You have many hidden talents that you haven't found yet, that can take you places. You will find friends, and I know making friends isn't simple. People may upset you, but they don't understand you. But I fully understand you. You are one in a million: D
