Introduction

Break the rules be a FIGHTER any DREAM is POSSIBLE if you are brave enough to do it your way. I'm simply just saying whatever you want go for it don't let the haters stop you from being you or doing what you love. Stay humble and just believe in yourself there will always be people that want to bring you down but really and truly it makes you a stronger person just to turn cheek and go the other way

Chapter 1

IF you can look yourself in the mirror everyday with the decisions you make well that's where power starts. They say when you stop worrying about what other people think you start doing what is best for you. I use to worry about what other people think but now I just ignore and move on cause that's just people who really and truly don't have nothing better to do with their time. To say the truth I don't see the need for hate we are all capable of something if we believe and put our minds to it. You can never worry about what other people think of you cause really and truly you will never make everybody happy. I wake up every morning with a positive vibe and a positive quote it helps and truly works it changes your mentality and it's a way of letting go of all the negativity

Chapter 2

I am truly happy with myself. I stop listening to the negative vibes of people because I don't see the meaning of it. Somebody once told me if you have something to say to somebody you are direct but it seems like people do forget on how to be an adult these days. I don't really answer to things because I try to stay away from drama and at the same time keep out of it. Everybody wants what they can't have or what they don't have but to me what you have on the inside its so much more Beautiful than what you don't have on the outside. All I am saying to you is stay being you do what you love and love what you do and probably one day, someday you will be seen if you believe. Ignore the negative vibes of others and be truly happy with yourself, people laugh I say that's their problem.

The Looks

Introduction

The Beauty Myth and obsession with physical perfection that traps modern women in a cycle of hopelessness self hatred and self conscious as she tries to fulfill society impossible definition of flawless beauty.

Chapter 1

Love who you are, and love what comes with it including your flaws. Cause what makes you Different is what makes you Beautiful. Everyone comes in all shapes and sizes but rather skinny or small we are all Beautiful no matter what anyone says or thinks. When someone tell me go on a diet the only words I say. Is I love food to much to go on a diet. In My eyes you are who you are what are you going to do starve yourself every day of the day to please other people that shit is just stupid love yourself that's all I'm saying.

Chapter 2

All the People who have knock me down only inspire me to do Better. Never look a girl or woman in the eye and tell her she's fat because that would ruin someone self esteem. But what I have come to find out people will only do what makes them feel good. I mean it have some People in the world with a heart and know not to say those types of things to someone and then it has others who could careless. I mean come on what did that young Girl or Woman ever did to you for you to be saying that their fat. But some men or Guys do forget they come from a Mother. Don't ever worry about the Bitches in The School those are the type of People you are going to meet upon through Life. It will have Young girls telling other girls about their weight are how ugly they are I mean are you serious. I do wonder about people these days.

Chapter 3

Judging people on how big they are or telling someone she's not pretty is so freaking cruel. The Bullying what do people see in doing those type of things people do forget they have brothers and sisters and what don't hit you will hit the younger one. My advice to you if your Being bullied is You live your Life loudly and boldly and your joyful and Bright and others is just cynical it?s not a high school thing it?s a people thing people cut other people down out of jealousy, entertainment amusement or maybe cause is something broken inside of them or it's just for no reason at all it Don't end and it will never change. But the only way this type of people would win if your tears got turn to stone where you become bitter just like them you can't let those types of people change you. And you can't let those types of people stop you from singing and dancing around to your favorite song.
