Introduction

This is a poem.

It is about how some things on this site make me feel.

Chapter 1

I saw what they said
They put some of what I feel to bed
Nah I'm not seeing green, blue or red.
And yes they fed
Me some lightness
And now some brightness
Lies within me
Because when people can be
At their very best
And not making a bad jest
It is beautiful
And wonderful
And every other good "ful"
When people are understanding
And not letting the negative feeling
Of anger, fear, sadness, or despair
Overwhelm them and overtake them
It's much better than any sort of M&M
They can make you feel
More than surreal
And I
Feel like I could fly.
