Chapter 1

Marlow threw her bag into her car and reached up and pulled her trunk door shut. It was barely dawn, but she and many other juniors were taking a eight-hour trip to Colorado. She was on her way to pick up Alexa. After that, they stopped for coffee and went along their way to the school. Six tour buses gleamed under the streetlights. Sleepy eyed teens were getting out of cars and lugging their bags to a checkpoint. They were marked down and told to get into a bus that had room for both them and their luggage. Marlow met up with Aidan. They hugged tightly and Aidan whispered in her ear, "I could barely sleep, I was too excited to see you again!" Marlow kissed him on his cheek and they went to find Alexa and Audrianna. They boarded the third bus and Aidan and Marlow took a double seat and Audrianna and Alexa took one across from them. Ten minutes later, they were on the highway. Most teens were on their phones or sleeping. Marlow leaned against Aidan's shoulder. He wrapped his arm around her and kissed her head. Then the world closed up into subtle colors.

When Marlow opened her eyes, she was still laying on Aidan. The bus was slowing down in front of a fancy hotel. Everyone was waking up and stretching. They got their luggage and grabbed their assigned rooms. Alexa and Audrianna got a room together. Aidan and Marlow didn't but they got rooms with an adjoining door. It was 1:45 in the afternoon, so the four of them decided to go find a cafe'. They went and ate a late lunch and returned to the hotel and went swimming with some other friends.

Later, after a very filling dinner, Aidan & Marlow walked up to their rooms, kissed goodnight, and entered their rooms. After she took a shower, she noticed a piece of paper on the little table.

Chapter 2

Marlow picked it up and read it. Someone had broke into her room!

The paper read;

Hello Marlow,

If you would like to remain alive tomorrow, you will take the Presidential Hike at 2, with your hot boyfriend. If you don't we will be forced to take you captive and kill you. If you snitch, we WILL take matters into our own hands.

Signed, Double S

Marlow swallowed hard. She walked over to the door and knocked. Aidan opened it. He raised his eyebrows. Marlow handed him the piece of paper. Aidan cleared his throat and said, "Well, it seems as though we don't have a choice, huh?" Marlow shook her head and a little tear dripped down her cheek. Aidan took notice and slid a hand on her cheek and wiped it away with his thumb. He kissed and slowly and softly. Aidan whispered "I will protect you if anything bad happens. I promise." He balled up the letter and tossed it on the floor. He picked her up and hugged her. Marlow grabbed his temples and pushed her lips into his.

The next morning, Marlow woke up and dressed in athletic wear. She went downstairs and confirmed the hike. Aidan came down and gave a good morning hug. They had breakfast, and explained in hushed tones what was going on to Alexa, Audrianna, and Kathy. "The hike is only supposed to last an hour and a half" Marlow explained. "And we will bring GPS trackers," Aidan reassured them. Kathy agreed and told them they would set up camp in Audrianna's room. They left and Aidan squeezed Marlow's hand. "It will okay, we are going to be prepared."

At 1:30, they left and walked to the confirmed place. Then the ground fell out from what they were standing on.

Chapter 3

They landed in a well. They climbed out and stepped into tar. Then two big guys in kaboki masks pulled them out and brought them to Shelby. She said, "The only way to get out of here, is for Aidan to denounce you Marlow and become my boyfriend." "No way! Have you lost your mind?" Aidan cut in. "Oh well. Get her." Shelby ordered. The two guys picked up Marlow. She thrashed and kicked and yelled. They threw her into a pit littered with bones. "End her." Shelby shouted. "No! Please don't!" Aidan pleaded. "Nathaniel! Get her!" Shelby ordered. Another masked guy jumped into the pit. Marlow grabbed a skull and threw it at him. It knocked him over. She looked up and saw the two other guys holding Aidan down and making him watch. Shelby was sitting there with a satisfied grin. The guy stood up and drew his long knife. I whimpered and backed away. He tackled me and lay on me. My fingers closed on leg bone and stabbed him in the ribs. He fell off, and I sat on top of him. He took off his mask and said, "Marlow please don't." I quivered, "Nate?" "I'm here." He said. "Why are you trying to kill me?" "Because I loved you once and wanted you so badly. And now I have you." he pulled me down and rolled me over. He pushed his mouth into mine. I tried to resist, but he was too strong. I heard Aidan screaming and Shelby ordering to take him away. He cuffed me and kept on kissing. He pulled his shirt off but, I used my knee to hold it down. Then someone shook me.

We were in front of a nice hotel. Aidan smiled down at me, and kissed me on the forehead. I said, "Where is the well?" He shook his head and laughed, "You had a crazy dream, I could hear you talking in your sleep!" I sighed and kissed him back and said "No hikes on this trip!" "As the princess wishes!" Aidan winked.
