Introduction

Yes I said I was done with poems I change my mind so I made this one..

This could mean different things for different people but all my poems have a special meaning to me so no hate if you don't like it don't be rude about it say it nicely thanks ?

Chapter 1

Someday you'll realise I just wanted the best for you
Someday you'll realise I was there with you
Someday you'll realise I'm the one that got away

Someday you'll see that I spent my nights crying when you were cutting

Someday you'll see I cried when you were upset with me and happy when you weren't

Someday you'll see I loved you
Someday you'll regret letting me go
Someday you'll wish me back
But I wont come back

Someday you'll realise I was there encouraging you when you were hurt
But someday isn't today
