Introduction

Hey guys this is what I went through since 4th grade every morning looking in the mirror closely so it's important to me please comment

Chapter 1

Mirror mirror on the wall show me all my hidden flaws
Do I have one hair out of place?

What are those clear smudges on my face?
Mirror mirror, tell the truth am I what people say?

Mirror mirror on my walls
Why can't I be a lot less tall?

Mirror mirror can I ask why?
Why's your job to traumatize?
