Introduction

This is about what people think about you but you can change it.

Chapter 1

People judge you based on your looks.
No matter what you look like.
People judge you with hate and jealousy.
Hate your style, or jealous of it.
Caring or not.
Respect or disrespect.
Everybody is beautiful and amazing.
Who cares what they think.
You be you, with possibility and love.
Caring and Kindness.
Love and Hate.
Not everybody listens, but you are strong.
No matter what they think.
You don't have to dress beautiful to be beautiful.
You don't have to show off to be loved.
You are amazing whether you know it or not.
Why fit in when you were born to stand out?
