Chapter 1- Foxhowl

I stared at my phone a message pops up. I glance at the text. " Hey, Foxy wants to come with me to the park later? " The text says. I check who it's from. My friend... My crush you would say. I text my friend back. " Of course Lil. " I see her sitting on a bench with a joyful or a sad smile. I let my mind wander for a bit. "Mom I'm going to the park with Lil!" I shout as I put a jacket on. "Be back soon." My mom says. I grab my phone, and my earbuds and turn on a song that fits my friend and my relationship. I get to the park soon enough and sit on Lil's and my common bench. I go on to my phone to see a message from Jay on Scratch. "Hm, I don't care Flaggy put anything in your series." I roll my eyes "Hey guys what are you doing?" I asked the two on Scratch. I get a message back right away which was uncommon from Jay. "Flaggy doesn't know what to put in her new series." I softly giggle as I message back. "Flaggy why don't you put a cat named FlaggyHasNoIdeaWhatToWriteAbout and they try to find something that you can write about?" I see a message from Flaggy pop-up. "Not funny Fox." I giggle a bit then look up to see Lil walking towards me. "So why did you want me to come to the park with you?" I ask Lil. "I broke up with Jacob," Lil whispers to me. "That's great! I mean that's horrible." I whisper back to Lil. She didn't seem to notice what I said. "I liked him a lot but he wasn't right for me." Lil raises her voice a bit. I think about a line from A Thousand Years the song I was listening to earlier. "But watching you stand alone." I quote in my mind. I shake my head softly and look at Lil who just stopped talking. "I'm going to go home now." Lil whispers. I try to grab her hand as she gets up and walks away. I try to hold back a tear but it falls onto the ground.

Chapter 2

Chapter 2- Flagpost

Flaggy messaged Foxhowl on Scratch after she was quiet for 5 days which was very uncommon for her. " Hey, Fox you okay? " Flaggy had typed. " Yeah, I'm okay just a bit heart-broken, " Foxhowl responded. Flaggy closed her eyes and opened them to see two messages. One from Jay and one from Fox. "Why is that" Jay had typed. " No reason. " Foxhowl had typed. Flaggy shook her head something was wrong with Foxhowl.

Chapter 3

Chapter 3- Lil

Lil stared at her phone waiting for a message from Foxy. When she didn't get a message from Foxy 10 minutes later she got on to Roblox to see if Foxy was playing on her account there. She wasn't. Lil wondered what Foxy was doing. She blinked down a soft tear. She turned on A Thousand Years to listen to on her phone. She sang softly as she climbed into her bed and fell asleep.
