Introduction

This is a song that I wrote and I'd appreciate it if you took a minute to comment something please!

Chapter 1

Is this really what you wanted
Is this our destiny
I was stupid enough to think that we bonded
I wait for you breathlessly

Seasons change and thunder strikes
But you never show up
Your words hit me like airstrikes
I guess it's time to jump

My feelings are numb
I'm floating at the bottom of the sea
My ears fill with water with a hum
You eventually come to me

This is what you needed
A little hint of venge
Don't even know that I conceded
I lost all my patience

Seasons change and thunder strikes
But you never show up
Your words hit me like airstrikes
I guess it's time to jump

My feelings are numb (my feelings)
I'm floating at the bottom of the sea (of the sea)
My ears fill with water with a hum (hm)
You eventually come, yeah, you eventually come to me (to me)
