Introduction

I just need to write down my thoughts again

Chapter 1

I first talked to her on Valentine's Day. Maybe I should take that as a sign? I liked you I guess but yesterday you smiled at me.

You smiled so big and it seemed like the world brightened. But I don't even really know you. I just know your name and I see you only like three times a week so how am I even supposed to get to know you? My social anxiety makes it impossible to text you, so here I am, waiting for you to text me. I can't think clearly anymore. You made me write a song about you, hoping to get over this feeling because I know that being hopeful is so so so stupid. But thinking of your smile makes me smile. And I haven't had that in a long long time.

? ? ?????? ????? ?? ????? ?? ?????, ??? ?? ???, ??? ?? ????? ?????, ??? ?????? ??? ????? ????? ? ????? ?? . ?

I hope we'll get closer in the future.

Please always keep smiling
