Introduction

Amber has always wanted a dog, and when her cat dies, now's her chance! But with challenges in her face... Will she get that dog?

Please stay tuned for part two!

Chapter 1

Amber stood in front of her mother. "Amby!" Said Amber's mother. "You know Milo only just left us!"

Milo was Amber's all-time best friend, who was a tabby cat. "Yes, Mum, I know he died but-" started Amber. "No buts! That dog is not our type! You know Milo died a few months ago!" Her mother cut her off. Amber walked away sadly. She just wanted a puppy. She didn't care whether it was a boy or a girl, or what breed. She just wanted a dog.

There was one perfect dog that she found. A gorgeous kelpie puppy, with large bulging eyes, that made Amber's heart melt. Then she realized what 'not our type' meant. It said that the puppy was $1,500. Amber groaned. Her blonde hair shimmering. Still, the puppy was perfect. She trained her eyes on the dog. "Tess" she whispered. That dog was Tess. Her Tess...

Chapter 2

Amber woke up to the sound of her mother singing the lyrics of 'just like a virgin' by Madonna. Amber, half-asleep turned on her phone. She opened up the dogs for sale area and found Tess. Her eyes, still bright. "My little Tess, my little puppy" sang Amber; not realizing she had selected the buy now button! "Oh no!" Shouted Amber. She knew she couldn't buy the dog.. but she put in her address.. and she opened piggy bank up.. just enough money... And Amber bought the dog. Luckily the dog came with all of the essentials. But how was her mum going to feel! Amber immediately regretted it.

How is Amber's mother going to react? And will she get her dream dog?

Wait for part two coming out soon!
