Introduction

This happened to me.

Chapter 1

You called me names.

You never said sorry.

You left me alone.

You never said sorry.

You spread rumours of me.

You never said sorry.

You humiliated me.

You never said sorry.

But somehow I still fell in love with you.

I asked you out. You said yes. I never thought you would be lesbian like me.

We dated for so long.

You hurt me but I still stayed with you.

You went up to me.

Said it was a joke.

You never liked girls.

The whole thing was a lie. You acted as you loved me just to hurt me in the end.

You never said sorry.

Well, now it doesn't matter.

It doesn't matter if you don't like girls. I'm not even a girl anymore. I'm non-binary. Will you like me now?

Well, I don't care.

You never said sorry so now I will ignore you.

And guess what?

I am never going to say sorry to you.
