Chapter 1

Moon 0:

I'm Mudkit, a silver tabby tom. My father is Haysong and my mother is Sparrowface, who sadly died during my kitting. I have a sister named Sunkit. I'm zero moons old. I'm magnanimous and soft. My rank is kit in PatchClan. My leader is Gorsestar, my deputy is Snakestripe, and my medicine cat is Marshnose. I was born with a paralyzed leg, It is currently Newleaf.

I saw another kit getting a badger ride out in the clearing. I asked Petalheart if I could get one too and she said yes! It was fun!

I tried to sneak out of camp. I made it past but then the dusk patrol caught me. They made me promise on StarClan I wouldn't sneak out again this moon. Dang it.

I asked Gorsestar if I could train to be a warrior despite my leg. She was hesitant but agreed.

Chapter 2

Moon 1:

I'm now one moon old. It's still Newleaf.

Another kit named Spiderkit cheated in hide-and-seek! The nerve! That she-kit messed with the wrong tom!

Gorsestar asked me again if I wanted to be a medicine cat. I mean come on! It's just a paralyzed leg! Gorsestar smiled and said she understood. Phew.

I snuck out of camp again. I wasn't caught so rolled around in some leaves.

Moon 2:

I'm now two moons old. It's still Newleaf.

I met a kit named Meadowkit. She asked if I wanted to play with her. I eagerly said yes! We're best friends now!

I tried to sneak out but Spiderkit found out and told the warriors. How rude!

The queens let me play a little bit outside the camp. I was playing when a mudslide happened! I injured my head and had to stay in the medicine den for a quarter of the moon!

Whisperfang, an elder, told me a great story! I tried to sneak out to get her flowers, but I was caught by the dawn patrol. Gosh darn it.

I snuck out the next day and got her flowers. I wasn't caught but I got bored quick.

Moon 3:

I'm now three moons old. It's now Greenleaf.

Some kits teased me, so I got a frog and put in their nests. It was so funny!

Meadowkit and I raced. She somehow won!

An apprentice sneered at Meadowkit. Operation frog in nest had to happen again.

Spiderkit walked by. I stuck my tongue out at her.

Whisperfang told me another great story. This time I got the flowers right away.

I snuck out again and rolled in some leaves.

Moon 4:

I'm now four moons old. It's still Greenleaf

I snuck out of camp with Meadowkit!

Some elders told me stories about LionClan!

Haysong took me on a tour of the territory. It was huge!

I was walking to the fresh-kill pile when I saw a ginger she-kit! She was soooo pretty! She said her name was Lizardkit!

Whisperfang just can't tell a bad story. Flowers for her!

I snuck out, but got bored quick.

I tried to talk to Lizardkit, but she walked off. Why is love so hard?

Moon 5:

I'm now five moons old. It's still Greenleaf.

Meadowkit teased me in front of the other kits so I chased her around camp!

Sunkit convinced me to eat crowfood. I got a bad tummy ache.

I snuck out of camp. I strayed too far and got captured by HollowClan ... Foxdung.

I was put in the nursery. Another kit was chasing a moth but a hawk's shadow was over them! I warned her and she quickly got in the nursery.

Chapter 7

I'm now six moons old. It's now Leaf-fall

The HollowClan leader has given me my apprentice name, but I'm not allowed to train because they think I might escape. Ruffians.

Some warriors practiced their moves on me. I hate this clan.

Snailstar interrogated me. I don't crack under pressure.

I was secretly practicing my moves when I felt something was watching me. I turned around to see another apprentice. They reported me to the leader! Rude.

I'm now seven moons old. It's still Leaf-fall.

Negotiations are going well between the clans.

Gorsestar came to visit but couldn't get me back.

I start secretly practicing my moves again, and again I have that feeling. I turned around to find a kit. They beg me to teach them my moves and I do. I make them promise to keep it a secret. They promise.

Chapter 10

I'm now nine moons old. It's now Leafbare.

The deputy interrogates me. I don't spill any beans.

I scared a kit when I told him that PatchClan warriors eat naughty kits.

I tried to escape but got caught.

I practice again and, guess what? I got the feeling again. Another kit comes along and asks. I'm tired of doing this so I said no. They ran off and told the leader. Good StarClan.

Chapter 11

I'm now ten moons old. It's still Leafbare.

I tried to escape but got caught.

The warriors practice their moves on me. Ow.

PatchClan traded HollowClan a moon's worth of prey for me and I headed home happily.

Some stupid apprentices dared me to run across Thunderpath. They make fun of me for declining.

Gorsestar gave me Alderear as my mentor.

Alderear taught me some pretty basic stuff.

I walked up to Lizardpaw, wondering if she forgot about me, when she invited me to talk with her!
We talked about how mouse-brained kits are.

Chapter 12

I'm now eleven moons old. It's still Leafbare.

Meadowpaw and I catch each other up on everything on the dawn patrol.

Alderear and I practice hunting.

I caught greencough, and I'm unfit for training for a couple of days.

Alderear asks me what I want to do. We sparred.

I shyly asked Lizardpaw out, but she said she was busy.

Chapter 13

I'm now twelve moons old. It's now Newleaf.

Gorsestar gave me my warrior name. I will now be called: Mudfire! Sunpaw becomes Sunsong, Meadowpaw becomes Meadowclaw, Lizardpaw becomes Lizardscratch, and Spiderpaw becomes Spiderleaf.

Meadowclaw and I share tongues after a long day.

I got on a hunting patrol and saw a mouse. I sneak towards the mouse and pounce. I caught it perfectly and my clanmates are proud!

I go on a border patrol and smell something weird. I follow my nose and find a sick loner. I took her back to camp to be treated. She joins and becomes Leopardpaw.

I walk up to Lizardscratch and open my mouth to ask her out when she asks me to climb a tree with her. I nod eagerly and have a great time!

Chapter 14

I'm now thirteen moons old. It's still Newleaf.

One of the queens asked me to watch her kit. I agree and she thanks me. She comes back to see the kits happily playing and says I'll make an excellent father!

Meadowclaw and I remember how mouse-brained I was when I was younger.

I helped Marshnose gather some herbs.

I woke up in the night when I heard something strange. I looked out and saw a fox! I woke the others and we chased it off.

Went on a patrol and saw the fox again. I left it alone for now.

I asked Lizardscratch out, but she said she was busy. Sigh.

Chapter 15

I'm now fourteen moons old. It's still Newleaf.

Marshnose has retired to the elder's den, so Foxwhisker is the new medicine cat.

I heard another strange noise this night. It was an attacking badger. I woke everyone up and we fought it off.

I went on a border patrol and a BrightClan patrol accused me of crossing the border! I tried to tell them I didn't, but they weren't convinced. Fox-hearts.

I asked out Lizardscratch, but she said she was yet again busy.

Chapter 16

I'm now fifth-teen moons old. It's now Greenleaf.

I was basking in the sun. Lizardscratch walked up and shyly asked me to be her mate! I instantly said yes, overjoyed she felt the same way!

A branch fell on me and I got a scar on my right hindleg.

Some kits played with me, pretending I was an enemy warrior.

Gullwing made a snide comment about my hunting skills. I confronted him about it, and he said he didn't care and laughed.

I was on the border where I found a kittypet. He said he wanted to join the clan. I took him to camp, and he attacked Gorsestar, taking one of her lives. Gorsestar sentenced me to clean the elder's den for the rest of the moon.

I asked out Lizardscratch, but she said she was busy.

Chapter 17

I'm now sixteen moons old. It's still Greenleaf.

Some cats mock my paralyzed leg. Tsk.

Meadowclaw and I share tongues after a long day.

I encountered a rouge near the kittypet place. I attacked them, but they put up a good fight. Gorsestar invites them and they become Turtlepaw.

Snakestripe assigns me to guard duty, so I have to stay up all night. I stay up and alert the clan when a wolf attacks.

I was on a border patrol when I found an abandoned loner kit. I took the kit back and a queen took him in.

Lizardscratch and I climbed a tree.

Chapter 18

I'm now seventeen moons old. It's still Greenleaf.

I looked after a mischievous kit, but I regretted it.

I was on a hunting patrol and I saw a sparrow. I barely caught it, but it's still a catch!

I smelled a weird scent on the border. I followed my nose and was ambushed by some rouges. I fought them off barely.

I asked Lizardscratch out, but she said she was busy.
