Introduction

This is my life, my story, no one can write it for me.

This is a series of books that I wrote about my life. No hate comments please; I've been through too much.
Chapter 1

The first part of the day

I was alone, I was scared, I didn't know anyone. It was my first day at primary school and I got chosen to go on the computer. I was really excited even though it was just a shapes and colours game.

After I had been playing that game by myself for half an hour the teacher told me that it was someone else's go now. I went up to Miss Attwood (the teacher) and said, "I don't know who anyone is and everyone seems to already have their friendship groups."
Chapter 2

When I first made friends

Miss Attwood pointed out another girl that was playing with the puppet show by herself. I walked to the girl and said, "Hi, my name's Emily. What's your name and can I play with you?"
The girl replied, "Sure you can play with me! My name's Olivia!"
"That's my middle name!" I replied.

From that day on, I knew we would be best friends.

Soon, it was break time and Olivia had to go to a dentist appointment so I was by myself again. I just walked around the playground by myself until I walked straight into another girl. "Sorry," the girl said, "I'm looking for my friends, we are playing hide and seek. Can you help me find them?"
"Okay," I replied, "What's your name? I'm Emily"
"I'm Leah," she said.
Soon me and Leah saw someone under a bench. It was one of Leah's friends. I found out that her name was Scarlett. Leah introduced me to Scarlett and we also became friends. Soon later, we found two other girls. They were apparently called Siena and Béatrice. I became friends with then too!
Chapter 3

Olivia comes back

After break time was over, Miss Attwood called us inside. I looked around and noticed that Olivia still wasn't back. I just played dress up with Leah, Siena, Scarlett and Béatrice. In the dress up area, there was another girl there by herself so me and my new friends went up to her and Siena said, "Hi, I'm Siena, this is Leah, this is Béatrice, this is Emily and this is Scarlett. Can we be your friends?"
"Finally, people want to be my friend! I'm Elizabeth. These two boys," said Elizabeth as she pointed out two boys, "have been really mean to me. They keep on calling me names and being mean because I dressed up as a princess."
"They are being mean," Béatrice said.
As soon as she said that, I spotted Olivia. She was back! I ran over to her and told her that I had made new friends. I introduced Olivia to the girls and now Olivia had more friends as well!
The end of the day

That night when I got home, I told my parents everything that had happened that day. It took me ages to tell them everything! They seemed to be happy that I had made friends. Then, my dad said, "Is there a girl in your class called Katrina?"
I replied, "Yes, I think so."
My dad said, "That's funny because when you and Katrina were babies, I was teaching her dad how to drive!"

After I had eaten my tea, I watched TV for a bit and then I went to bed. I had a dream that night.
Chapter 5

My dream

I saw many things in the dream. First, I saw my dad teaching Katrina's dad how to drive; even though I didn't know what Katrina's dad looked like! Then it changed to the scene in the dress up area where me and my friends met Elizabeth. The two boys that were being mean to Elizabeth said that they were called Olly and Archie and that they were friends with a boy called Nico. They also said that Nico hated Olivia.

Guess what I found out the next day? That the two boys names were Olly and Archie and that they had a friend called Nico and Nico hated Olivia
Chapter 6

What I told my friends

It was lunch time when I told them. I told them about the dream and what I found out. We all agreed it was creepy and that we should leave those boys alone. Olivia didn't say anything for the rest of lunch.
Chapter 7

Highlights of the year

A few weeks later, it was Leah's birthday; she was the oldest of the group. At her party, we got to do make up and style are hair at this really cool place. We each got a magic wand and some "fairy dust" and we got to pretend to be fairys. After, we went out for lunch at a restaurant. And guess what? It was one of those places that it is a restaurant on the ground floor and a home on the first floor. Leah's auntie, uncle and cousin lived in that!

Elizabeth didn't have a party because she was moving to a different part of the country. So basically, we all surprised her by doing a surprise party at school! The whole class got to play games all day and we got party food! It was one of the best days ever, well, until home time. We were all upset because we knew that we would never see Elizabeth in school again. But, the weekend after she had left, me, Leah, Siena, Olivia, Scarlett and Béatrice got invited to her new house!
Chapter 8

My birthday, the good and bad

A month later, it was my birthday! On the weekend before, I had a party at my house and me and my friends (including Elizabeth!) Came over! We got to play on trampoline in the snow! (it was winter.) Then we went to a smallish water park! It was really fun!

Good News
On my actually birthday, it was a Tuesday, I won a special reward for having a positive attitude in class!

Bad News
Nico, Olly and Archie were calling me "teachers pet" because I won that reward. They thought that because I had a really positive attitude, I loved school the most out of the whole school.
Chapter 9

The last few days

On the last few days, quite a lot of new friends, their names were: Emily, Brooke, Eloise and Kaitlan.

So now I had a massive friend group. It was:
Me
Olivia
Leah
Scarlett
Siena
Béatrice
Elizabeth
Emily
Brooke
Eloise
Kaitlan

I had gone through a lot that year (considering I was 4/5 years old!) Especially when it came to new friends!
Chapter 10

Please comment on what you thought! Some of the chapters are a bit short but I'm not a brilliant writer!
